

Berlin

- This figure is a comprehensive map of Berlin's public transport network. It displays the S-Bahn (green lines), U-Bahn (blue lines), and Regional Rail (red lines) systems. The map includes numerous station names, such as Hauptbahnhof, Alexanderplatz, and Potsdamer Platz. It also shows the VBB fare zones (A, B, C) and the locations of the Berlin Brandenburg Airport (BER) and the Central Omnibus Station (ZOB). The map is color-coded to represent different transport modes and fare zones, with green for S-Bahn, blue for U-Bahn, and red for Regional Rail. The map is oriented with North at the top and includes a legend in the top right corner.
